

Support Propositions S and L to keep San Francisco Arts and Culture Alive and Well.

Tuesday, September 27, 6 Pm - Prop S 700 Howard St, Arts and Families Town Hall

Come join us at the YBCA theater and learn how you can make a difference in making this vision of a just and vibrant city a reality, a Better SF, where the arts thrive and every family has a home. This November San Franciscans will be making a momentous decision on a vision for our city. Prop S, a precedent setting ballot measure, could address the most urgent issues of housing and homelessness while ensuring stable and increased funding for artists and arts groups serving every neighborhood.

Thursday, October 6, 5-6:30 PM - Prop X Kickoff 2868 Mission St. Mission Cultural Center for Latino Arts

Join us for a kickoff celebration and learn more about Proposition X, an effort to preserve the community services, arts and PDR spaces that continue to be converted or demolished at an alarming pace. Help us stop the catastrophic and irreversible loss of the affordable spaces that make our City the place we love!

Thursday, October 6, 6:30-9 PM - SF Artists 934 Brannan St. SOMArts ArtSpan Artlaunch

VIP Reception 6:30-7:30pm: $50: One Art Lover Members / $80: Dual Art Lover
General Admission 7:30-9:00pm: $25 per person

Saturday, October 8, 5 PM - SF Artists 934 Brannan St. SOMArts ArtSpan

SF Art Tasting 2016: Juror & Artist Talk. Join us for a taste of art, games, wine, and stimulating discussion at the SF Open Studios Exhibition. Please your palette with wine tasting and snacks, while viewing over 400 works of art, sculpture, and jewelry by San Francisco artists. Browse the gallery, get a taste of the artworks on display and hear how jurors and Juror's Choice-Award winning artists selected artwork for the exhibition. $10 tickets includes wine tasting. details.

Now the developers want to kick the artists out of Oakland. Where do you draw the line?